In this school pronouncer guide, the chief pronunciation for a word is most often the first pronunciation given in this dictionary. Occasionally, however, the Bee has chosen to assign the dictionary's second or third pronunciation as the chief pronunciation. This decision has been made by the Head Judge, "The word was spelled incorrectly." The Head Judge will then state "incorrect" to the speller and that student is "down." The Head Judge then correctly spells the word for the speller and the audience. !!If only one judge of the three thinks a word was misspelled, or if it is agreed that the word
